

Equine Donation Trial Requirements and Contract

Thank you for considering a donation of your equine to Healing with Horses Ranch. Please review our requirements as stated below, and let us know if you have any more questions.

Healing with Horses Ranch accepts donations of equines into our program after passing an evaluation and trial period at the Healing with Horses Ranch facilities. Equines who come to Healing with Horses Ranch will partner in our Equine Facilitate Learning (EFL) / Therapeutic Riding Program.

Healing with Horses Ranch requires:

- The Horse Donation questionnaire be filled out in full and with as much detail as possible for our records
- A negative Coggins Test within the last 12 months before the equine(s) is allowed at the Healing with Horses Ranch facilities
- The equine to be able to load and travel properly in a horse trailer.
- A copy of the equine's previous year's veterinary records (including vaccinations, teeth floating, and any other visits from the vet)
- Current on vaccinations (flu, tetanus, rabies, EWV Encephalomyelitis)
- That the equine be recently trimmed/shod
- That the equine pass the initial Healing with Horses Ranch evaluation, as well as a subsequent test of suitability.
- If at all possible, the owner will transport the equine to our facility. If, after the trial, the equine is not considered appropriate for Healing with Horses Ranch's program, the owner will pick the equine up.

Acceptance of the equine for a trial period does not obligate Healing with Horses Ranch to accept the equine into its program.

When the equine passes the evaluation and trial period and is ready to be donated to Healing with Horses Ranch, the donor must sign a donation contract giving up all rights to the donated equine, transferring ownership of the equine free of all encumbrances to Healing with Horses Ranch.

After reading and understanding the above guidelines and policies, I would like Healing with Horses Ranch to evaluate my equine. If my equine passes the initial evaluation, I will make arrangements for my equine to be transported to Healing with Horses Ranch for a trial period for possible donation to Healing with Horses Ranch.
